Adults Act in Minstrel Show

The Antioch High School Musical Association will present its annual musical "Show Boat" Jan. 19 and 20 of next week.

The Association produces this musical variety program each year in order to raise money for the high school's fine arts department's summer music camp which is held at East Bay Camp on Lake Bloomington.

This year the camp will be held from August 12 to August 17.

1962's "Show Boat" will present an outstanding display of local adult talent. Featured in this year's show will be Ken Smouse-vocal, Lila Palinski-Folk songs, Penny Anderson-ballet, John Serahon and his brother-comedy, John Romer-M.C., Alyce Brownlee, Gene and Ann Shea-twirling, with Gene Shea doing a solo spot, Miss Ruth Nickelson-comedy, Lee Frank-acordion soloist, and Roger Fitch-tenor banjo soloist. Along with these headliners will be a chorus to add color and variety to the show.

Backing up the program will be a combo comprised of Joe Kankardrums, Dr. Jas. Kopriva-vibes, Bill Brook on guitar, H. Durling-piano, and Joe Rush-clarinet.

The show will be held at the high school auditorium, beginning at 8 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at the door, from parents of the high school's band members or choir students. ATH Band Director Joseph Rush expressed his desire in seeing a large turnout for the event.

Crime Takes a Cold Holiday

The cold wave in the area apparently was good for something this last week.

Crime, it seems, took a holiday and hibernated away from the sub-zero temperatures.

Chief Deputy Charles E. Larson of the Waukegan Sheriff's office reported that no accidents, burglaries or thefts along with other average violations of the law had been reported in the last week.

Chief of Antioch's Police force, Walter Scott, also stated that no crimes had been reported in Antioch throughout the cold spell.

New Post Office Near Completion

Antioch Postmaster Roy Kufalk recently reported that the new post office building located on Orchard and Broadway streets is nearing completion and that February 1st occupancy may well be realized.

Although the freezing weather has prevented the installation of the solid plate glass windows and doors in the building, the electrical system along with the heating has been finished.

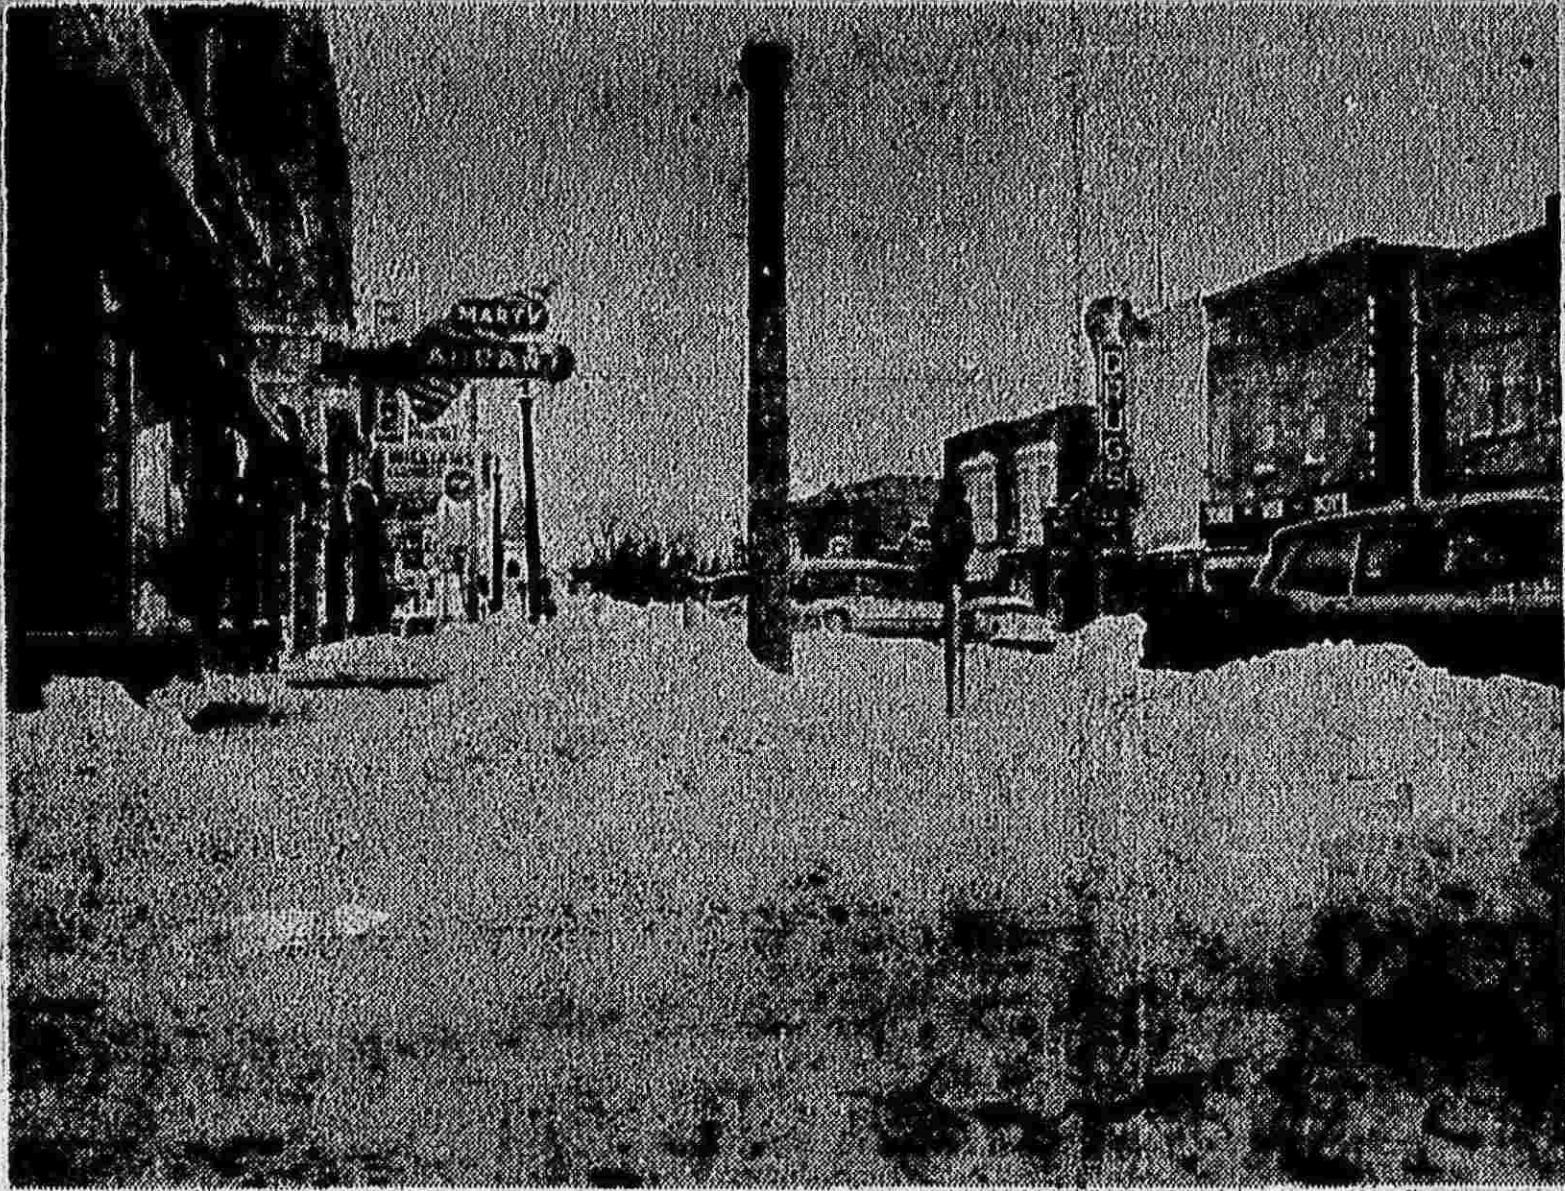

A vinyl covering will cover the present concrete floor and a hanging ceiling is nearly completed. Air-conditioning equipment is already at the new site which will be totally serviced with new equipment which the office sorely needs. The increased volume of mail stems from expanding industrial and residential areas here.

The oblong building will have two toilets, a postmaster's office and an envelope storage partition. The main body of the building will be devoted to the mail processing center functioning for five rural and two city carriers.

A larger postal window area will be provided for residents which will be locked after hours, leaving a mailbox area entrance open.

The building's loading dock, in the rear of the building where a parking lot will be made available, is already completed and has an overhanging roof designed for the protection of mail deliveries against inclement weather.

The flagpole and front sidewalks remain to be completed and the alleyway and parking lot to the rear of the building will not be black-topped until spring.

Upwards of 14 inches of snow fell in the Antioch area last week causing drifting walls of snow to hem in the stores and businesses along Main Street. Although the sidewalks were not clear, the Antioch roads were completely passable.

Lake Villa Board Propels New Liquor Law into Effect

Lake Villa Attorney Juron recently drew up a new ordinance on liquor licenses and presented it to the Lake Villa Village Board Monday evening, Jan. 8. Lake Villa already has six class A licenses, 4 class B and 1 class D. A motion was made and seconded before the board accepted the new ordinance.

A letter from Mrs. Amy Probie, Village Secretary, was read in which she requested a raise in salary from $800 to $1600 per year. Mrs. Probie stated in her letter that her duties as Secretary have tripled since 1958.

The Board's finance committee, Paul Williamson, Melvin Harms and Russell Wilson, discussed the request. Paul Williamson, Melvin Harms and upon a $1200 salary increase effective May 1 of this year.

John Valvanis, who recently acquired the Casa Loma Resort on Rte. 21, was present and requested a hook-up with the village utility system. Mayor Walter Schneider, SA, stated that Valvanis would have to contact the village engineer who would determine whether the request could possibly be honored.

Valvanis stated that if he were required to install a sewage bed on his new property, it would cost over $40,000. Trustee Donald Kremin suggested that the village engineer meet with the board to discuss the cost involving the hook-up.

Valvanis was issued a building permit last week by the Lake Villa Board at a cost of $400. He hopes to have his resort finished and opened by May 1, of this year. Remodeling work on the building has already begun.

Trustee Charles Pester and also the Lake Villa village police commissioner presented an application to the board for Dennis Gurke to serve as a volunteer on the police force.

Pester stated that Gurke had worked on the force for 2 1/2 months and was a reliable man. The board accepted Gurke's application and approved of his new positioning. Currently, Lake Villa has an 11 man police force including Gurke. The board adjourned at 10 p.m.

Chamber Holds January Meeting

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce, reported Executive Secretary John L. Horan, will meet this coming Monday evening, Jan. 15.

The regular Chamber monthly dinner meeting will be held at Lorenz Smart Country House at 7:00 p.m.

Horan, who recently leveled some stern criticisms dealing with needed support for the Chamber, stated that fifty-seven business persons have been notified and that he expects a large turnout for the event.

Along with other Chamber business, committee reports are expected to be given. The Chamber did not meet in December due to the holiday events filling their calendar operations.

Executive Secretary Horan will present the Chamber's records for the entire Chamber's inspection at this meeting.

Dems Install New Officers

The Regular Democratic Club of Antioch meeting was held on Friday, Jan. 5 for the specific purpose of installing new officers.

The installing officer was Mrs. Rita Jadrach, county committee woman, who congratulated the past officers for their efforts. She gave a brief speech on the history of the Democrats. Frederick D. McDole, also of Antioch, had his license suspended after committing three moving traffic violations.

Cars Stall by The Hundreds

A great and lasting cold wave swept out of the southwestern states to blanket the middlewest with a terrific snowstorm and sub-zero weather, Antioch being almost right in the middle of the belt.

Cars stalled, pavements grew slick and residents faced the chilling winds with painful, red-faced expressions.

Postmaster Roy Kufalk, who takes the official Federal forecast for the Village of Antioch, stated that almost 13 inches of snow fell in the Antioch area since the storm's inception last Saturday. The weather, Kufalk reported, started to drop Tuesday morning and sank rapidly to a 10 below reading. By Tuesday evening at 6 p.m. the temperature gauges indicated 11 below. The all-time low for the new year registered a minus 16 Tuesday night, with sub-zero weather continuing on through Wednesday.

A break in the weather has been forecasted sometime today (Thursday). The lowest temperature recorded in the state was in 1884 when the thermometer showed a near 30 below.

Kufalk, who has been with the postoffice since Oct. 15, 1926, and has held the position of postmaster since 1940, stated that although February is generally a more moderate weather month, a record snowfall fell in February of 1936. At that time, a rotary snowplow was required to clear Rte. 59, but during the course of several days the entire village was totally snowbound.

However, Kufalk stated that "Tuesday was not the coldest day we've ever had in Antioch. The lowest temperatures recorded was a 21 below sometime in the forties."

Ray Toft, owner of Ray's Shell station on Broadway and Lake streets, reported that all three of his tow trucks had been constantly working since the snow began to fall Friday night. Since that time, Toft reported that he received over one hundred phone calls a day from those having car trouble.

As the records have it, there is speculation toward an estimated 8 inches of snow which may or may not begin to fall within the next few days.

Lions Induct New Officers

The Antioch Lions Club, meeting at Lorenz's Smart Country House Monday night, Jan. 8, at 7:15, held their induction of new officers.

Those installed to new positions were Dr. Albert Bucar, president; Preston J. Reckers, Jr., vice president; Ralph Greens, 2nd vice president; Leonard Roblin, 3rd vice president; John B. Fields, past president; Marvin Heath, secretary; Dick Radke, treasurer; William Vos, tail twister; Bill Seemann, lion tamer; Maurice Loven and Clarence Shaw, directors for one year and Bernard Osmond and Tom Haviland, directors for two years.

Leonard Roblin, president of the Antioch Lions Club Community service Corporation, read the financial report of the swimming pool in Antioch, stating that several season passes to the pool have been sold to apparently polar bear enthusiasts. Season passes may be purchased at the State Bank of Antioch.

Roblin also stated that he hoped the village appreciated the fine custodian aid received from unsolicited village workers in the pool last season. The workers performed general maintenance of the pool's area.

Particularly interested in the ground conservation about the pool, Roblin, who will continue on in his capacity as pool committee president for another two years, stressed a replanting of shrubs and trees.

A report was also forthcoming which stated that various state and red cross officials said that the pool was one of the cleanest and well-maintained pools in the entire state.

The pool itself, operating 87 days out of the allotted 93 this last summer, was used, according to a head count, was used 17,163 times.

Over 800 children received swimming instructions from six instructors under the able leadership of Charlette Queen and Mrs. Winnie Sorenson.

EXAMINE YOUR MAN

With the impending state election soon to arrive, a host of political candidates address their potential constituents through newspapers, on TV and radio in the desperate run for public office.

As we look at the running candidates we become increasingly concerned with the importance of knowing exactly who is seeking what office and, most of all, the qualifications of these candidates who hope to represent the voting public.

All too often, it seems to us, that voters take political candidates for granted. They, unfortunately, do not search a candidate's background with the interest of responsible and civic-minded citizens.

When voters do not take the time to examine the candidate of their choice, disaster, major or minor, can result. For instance, had the depression-starved Germans of 1933 bothered to find out exactly what kind of man Adolf Hitler was before throwing their support to him, they, no doubt, could have averted the ravages of war ten years later. Had the people of Chicago realized and sought the truth about ex-mayor, "Big Bill" Thompson while running for re-election in the mid-twenties on a "wide-open city" policy, they might have severely damaged the powerful influence of the Chicago Crime Syndicate which has grown to amazing proportions since then. We could go on and on citing examples of this nature, all derivative of indiscreet and slipshod voting habits.

In our country it seems that it has become simply a matter of routine to go to the polls and vote indiscriminately for a political candidate, using guesswork, social partiality or name loyalty (father to son) as a criterion.

We feel that this is but another way of squandering one of the most important rights on the face of the earth.

It is the obligation of every person who registers a vote to delve into the background of each candidate voted for. Without knowing what a man represents and what his qualifications are for the job he is seeking through the voter's endorsement, the voter himself becomes a party to any future infractions or neglect of the law originated by the candidate.

The best way to protect not only our voting rights but every right practiced and enjoyed is to make absolutely sure of how those rights are used and especially of who is guarding them for the citizens of this country.

The "Twisted" Civilization

By Jay Nash

The coming of the "Twist" seems to be symptomatic of our bomb-begotten era. Everywhere and everywhere seems either to be doing it or talking about it. It was recently described to me as a dance which incorporated everything from stamping out a hypothetical cigarette to a pretense of drying one's back with an imaginary towel.

The reason behind this transitory national craze is, of course, the unstable public conscience which attempts to forget (but is never allowed to by news medias) the ominous and forbidding threat of nuclear war.

"The Twist" is not to be confused with other fad dances such as The Black Bottom, The Fox Trot, the Bunny Hug and that nostalgic perennial The Charleston. The aforementioned dances were but the product of a listless carefree nation with too much money to spend and too much time to waste in the 1920's and the lengthy plush years before then. The twist symbolizes a society savagely reverting to an already obvious past in order to escape the demands for present day responsibility. This fad also represents common self-vindication of an era which no one will claim for their own.

To merely condemn a dance because it may be different is not my intention. However, I do feel that the dance is not a dance whatsoever but a crude form of acrobatics and gesticulations not at all becoming the performer.

It seems to me that this physical contortion of a dance actually appeals to no one, just as any other particular social function in the last twelve years. (I say twelve since it coincides with Jose Ortega y Gasset's definition of a generation's span within a similar period of time.) The motivation for this dance is not completely coherent to me but I would venture to say that it is a dire picture painted by a generation desperately in need of something other than nuclear weapons and rocket tests to call their own and be their private thing. The dance, in this light, becomes a concocted and distorted image of the world as it is today, unreasoning imitational and devoid of genuine originality.

With this in mind one will, perhaps, try to remember exactly what everyone was doing twenty years from this date. "What kind of an age was it," the youngster might ask. I will, undoubtedly, be inclined to ponder that query for a long time. And I might say "It was an age of lusterless personalities, mediocre values and arbitrary causes in which lived a generation busily bent on not conforming and in so doing, conforming. It was an age without authentic heroes fuming up synthetic ideas, and fiberless ambitions which forced words like honor and decency to fade, irretrievably lost, into anachronistic and cloudy pages of history. It was an age of unthink which produced a dogma of totally scientific progress and a retrogression in all other things save the purpose of self preservation." Or perhaps I will only say, "It was an era (similar to the maddening moments before the Titanic went down for the deep six) when people 'twisted' themselves into the darkest night of the world."

Every resident of Illinois should be cognizant of the needs of the people who receive assistance payments through the Illinois Public Aid Commission. This commission administers the payments to those receiving old age, general assistance, blind assistance, aid to dependent children and aid to the medically indigent aged.

More than 400,000 persons in Illinois are receiving some type of assistance. The state and federal governments share these costs. The percentage that each bears varies according to the type of assistance. If the rate of demand persists at the current level, it is expected that the IPAC will be more than $132 million short of funds by the end of the biennium. Of this amount the state must furnish almost $97 million.

It would take far more space than the editor of this newspaper would allot to attempt to cover all aspects of the IPAC program and why demands on it have increased. In its last report, the IPAC revealed that in October 1961, there were 58,714 more recipients of assistance payments than were receiving aid in October 1960. Total cost of the program was approximately $5 million more in October 1961, than it was in October 1960.

The number receiving old age and general assistance declined in the last year, but the increase in the numbers of dependent children increased 58,277 over the previous year. This was partly due to transfers of unemployed families with children from general assistance to ADC rolls.

Contributing to the increase in total cost is the average payment made in each program of assistance as adjustments are made due to the increase in cost of living. The average payment is up slightly over that of a year ago. Increased cost of medical care is also a major factor.

Costs to administer this program comprise one of the major demands on Illinois taxpayers. We know that changes in the social and economic fabric of our nation have created new needs in the welfare program. We also know that in more cases than is generally recog-

Along The Way

with Annie Mae

Whoever wrote the lyrics "Let it snow, let it snow, let it snow!" must certainly have been a resident of the sunny southern climes! They assuredly couldn't have been one of our clan of snow shovelers, with thirty foot driveways.

Whatever happened to that rosy-cheeked group of young, enthusiastic boys, armed with snow shovels? Remember, they'd knock at the door about 8 a.m. on a snowy morning, and greet you with the question "Shovel your walk for 50 cents Mam?" Could it be that then I had the energy, and not the 50 cents? Now I have the fifty cents, no energy and woe is me not a sign of the snow shovelers!

I suppose they too have been overtaken by this mechanized age. For now days along about August one receives mail circulars in the form of contracts from various jeep owners. They usually state these facts "All Winter Plowing of Your Driveway for $25.00", or some such figure. It seems like such a waste of money, at that time, and after all we may not even have much snow (I told myself). Last week, after 14 inches of snow (Roy Kufalk authority), I called the fellows with the Jeeps, (one after another) and it looked like I'd probably get my plowing done in August! Now you can see I'm extremely far-sighted, so much so that I can almost see the end of the driveway... Heave Ho! Back to the snow mines.

Picture of the week (If I only had a camera.) Jean Gresens, armpit deep in snow at Antioch Lake! When Ralph told her to stand up, she cried "I AM."

Doc Al Bucar has decided it's an ill snow that doesn't blow, etc. For he and his B.W. had an exclusive private floor show at Cerami's Saturday. They and one lone man were the only ones to brave the snow, but as Bob Anthony says, "The show must go on."

It's worth repeating! Barbara Madden's remark about Bess Truman and Eleanor Roosevelt never having had the problem Jackie Kennedy has with all the women imitating her hair style, clothes, etc. Barbara says, "Let's face it, most of us look like Bess Truman and Eleanor Roosevelt!"

Annie Mae says Thank-you, To Hester Garland of St. Paul, for your nice letter and clever poem, but Golly Ma'am, it'd spoil the fun if you know who I am.

To Viv and Jim Mapletorpe, for the nice card from Florida, but lounging in the warm sun? (With your coats on maybe?)

To all of you who sent cards at Christmas.

Uncle Henry says: "The Twist isn't new! I've been doing it for years. With a lemon peel, over a Martini glass!"

And that's all I've got to say This week Along the Way. Annie Mae nized, public assistance not only has kept people alive and prevented starvation, but has helped them to take their places in society as useful citizens.

A society which for the most part enjoys the abundant life, cannot turn its back on its aged, its dependent children, its blind, nor its disabled. We cannot ignore the need, but we can re-examine our efforts and make them more efficient.

I will report more about this next week.

The American Experience

By Ray Fuechner

As musical jokes go, most of them just aren't especially evocative of a good solid horse laugh. Instead the listener scratches his head perplexedly, thinking, it must be a private joke. Such is the case, for example, with Debussy's "Golliwog's Cakewalk" from the Children's Corner Suite. It includes a musical quotation from Wagner; Lohengrin I think. Anyway, it's not especially funny because I haven't read Wagner.

Frankster on a grander scale was Franz Joseph Haydn, better known as Papa. Papa Joe's Surprise Symphony (You remember—Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star—the melody Dohani made famous?) has a final movement which suddenly crashes into a volley of noise. Papa's theory was that most people slept at concerts anyway, and something was needed to wake them up. In the Farewell Symphony, the players originally filed off the stage one by one until the symphony was concluded by a lone flutist.

The only really good musical joke that I know of requires a bit of background to enjoy. That wild man, Hector Berlioz, had a passionate hatred of the fugue; can't say that I blame him either. At the time he was composing—19th century—it was the vogue to insert choral fugues especially in Masses of tedious length even upon a single word such as Amen. In his Damnation of Faust, Berlioz parodied the fad with a vigorous drunken fugue upon the word Amen sung raucously off-key by a tavern full of blotto students. To the listener who is ignorant of Berlioz's intent, the operatic episode comes as a rather wierd revelation in the midst of an otherwise beautiful work. It is funny, however; the best musical joke of them all.

When, however, a composer such as Bartok quotes Shostakovich in his Concerto for Orchestra, the whole thing's lost on me since I never heard the particular piece by Shostakovich which Bartok quotes. Most musical jokes require a rather good acquaintance with the classics on the listener's part.

Aside from the common practice of quoting other composers, some indulge in either visual or even completely inside jokes. George Antheil, for example, the Bad Boy of Music, brought in an airplane motor for use in his Ballet Mechanique. The music itself is not especially funny, but it must have been a beautiful sight at the premiere when a man's toupee is said to have blown up into the balcony when the propeller started.

Then too such a forefather of Dada as Erik Satie amused himself by titling compositions with names such as Three Pieces in the Shape of a Pear. Yes, he was a trifle eccentric, but his Gymnopedies are truly beautiful pieces of music.

In our own day we have such, what can I call them—they pretend to be serious, such hoaxes as John Cage who composed a thing called, I think, "61." Anyway, to play the piece you just sit down in front of a piano for fifty-one seconds. You don't do anything, you just sit there. And Cage is the darling of the avant-garde in music today.

A joke that would be much appreciated by everyone I've mentioned would be this column. They'd laugh themselves sick.

Dear Sirs:

I want to thank the parents, who bought BB guns and guns as gifts for their children for Christmas and then did not watch to see what they were doing with them.

Our summer cottage on Venetian Drive, Morley's Subdivision, at Lake Catherine, was the target.

They broke some of our windows. The neighbor's cottage was also a target.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Mrs. H. E. Worst

You were wrong last week, Annie Mae. Everyone did not have their Christmas tree put away. We still have our one hundred Christmas cards on display. With all our other Christmas array. Because once we put them away we will not see them again for about 350 days. But we will put them away about the 15th, Annie Mae.

O. K.

WHERE ARE YOU DOMICILED?

In the law, there is a vast difference between the meaning of "domicile" and "residence." It is not unusual to find that a Florida resident has his domicile in Illinois.

Technically, you are a "resident" of the state in which you are physically living, but you may have many successive residences and even several at the same time. However, the law says you have but one state of "domicile" and that is the state where you have your permanent home to which you intend ultimately to return.

Double Taxation Possible
It can become very important to determine what is your state of domicile, for tax and voting purposes, to determine how property should be distributed on death, and so forth. Many cases have been fought through the courts over questions of residence and domicile. It has happened that estates have been subjected to full death taxes in several states because of confusion about the domicile of the deceased, with the result that the estates were almost completely expended in paying taxes.

Consider the case of Jack Logan, a school teacher. He and his wife Mary lived in Carbondale, Illinois, for 15 years. When Mary died Jack took a job teaching school in a little town in Minnesota.

He kept the family house in Carbondale and returned there in the summers and sometimes during the Christmas holidays. He used a Carbondale, Illinois, address as his home address on various business papers, and often mentioned in conversation that he intended to return permanently to Carbondale when he retired. He used an Illinois absentee ballot to vote.

Evidence of Domicile
When Jack died, it became important to determine his state of domicile, for purposes of taxation and of distribution of his property, for he had left no will. Although during most of the year Jack was a Minnesota resident, a court would be likely to find that he had maintained his domicile in Carbondale, Illinois. All the things he did to retain connections to Illinois are evidence of his intention to return permanently sometime in the future, and that generally is the test of domicile.

If you travel extensively, or work in a state other than your home state, you have a problem of domicile that can be costly to you or your heirs if the evidences of your intention are not clear.

This column is written to inform and not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without consulting his attorney. Even a slight difference in the facts may change the result under the law. (The names used in this series are fictitious.)

Supersonic News

Mrs. Whitacre's Second Grade Students at the Antioch Grade School have just recently published their third annual Supersonic News which we print herein.

The reason for the mis-spellings, states Mrs. Whitacre, is due to the present "phonetic" instruction the children are now receiving and thus words are spelled as they sound. For instance, one word continually mis-spelled is "our" which is spelled by the students as "are."

In co-operation with Mrs. Whitacre and the Antioch Grade School, we reprint all of the "young reporters' articles as they were submitted, without changes in spelling, punctuation or composition.

RANDOM LAKE, WISC., TIMES: "Talking about the transportation of the nation there are some unionists suggesting the socialization of the entire transportation industry: trains, trucks, aircraft, boats, buses, or what have you. That would really be fun! fun! No government yet has ever made a success of anything they stuck their nose in, including utilities, transportation, mail service or any other service. Maybe it's a retroactive spirit but we're still for less and less government and more and more private business."

A good "rule of thumb" for deciding a safe minimum for your family's bank savings is three to six months' earnings. This means, according to the American Bankers Association, that if your family's average yearly income is $8,000 you should maintain rainy day savings of between $2,000 and $4,000.

Farm Interphone saves time and steps on Illinois farm

Mrs. Donley can hold an incoming call while calling or talking with her husband in the hoghouse or yard.

Loudspeaker monitors entire farm yard, discourages prowlers after dark, keeps "ear" out for trouble.

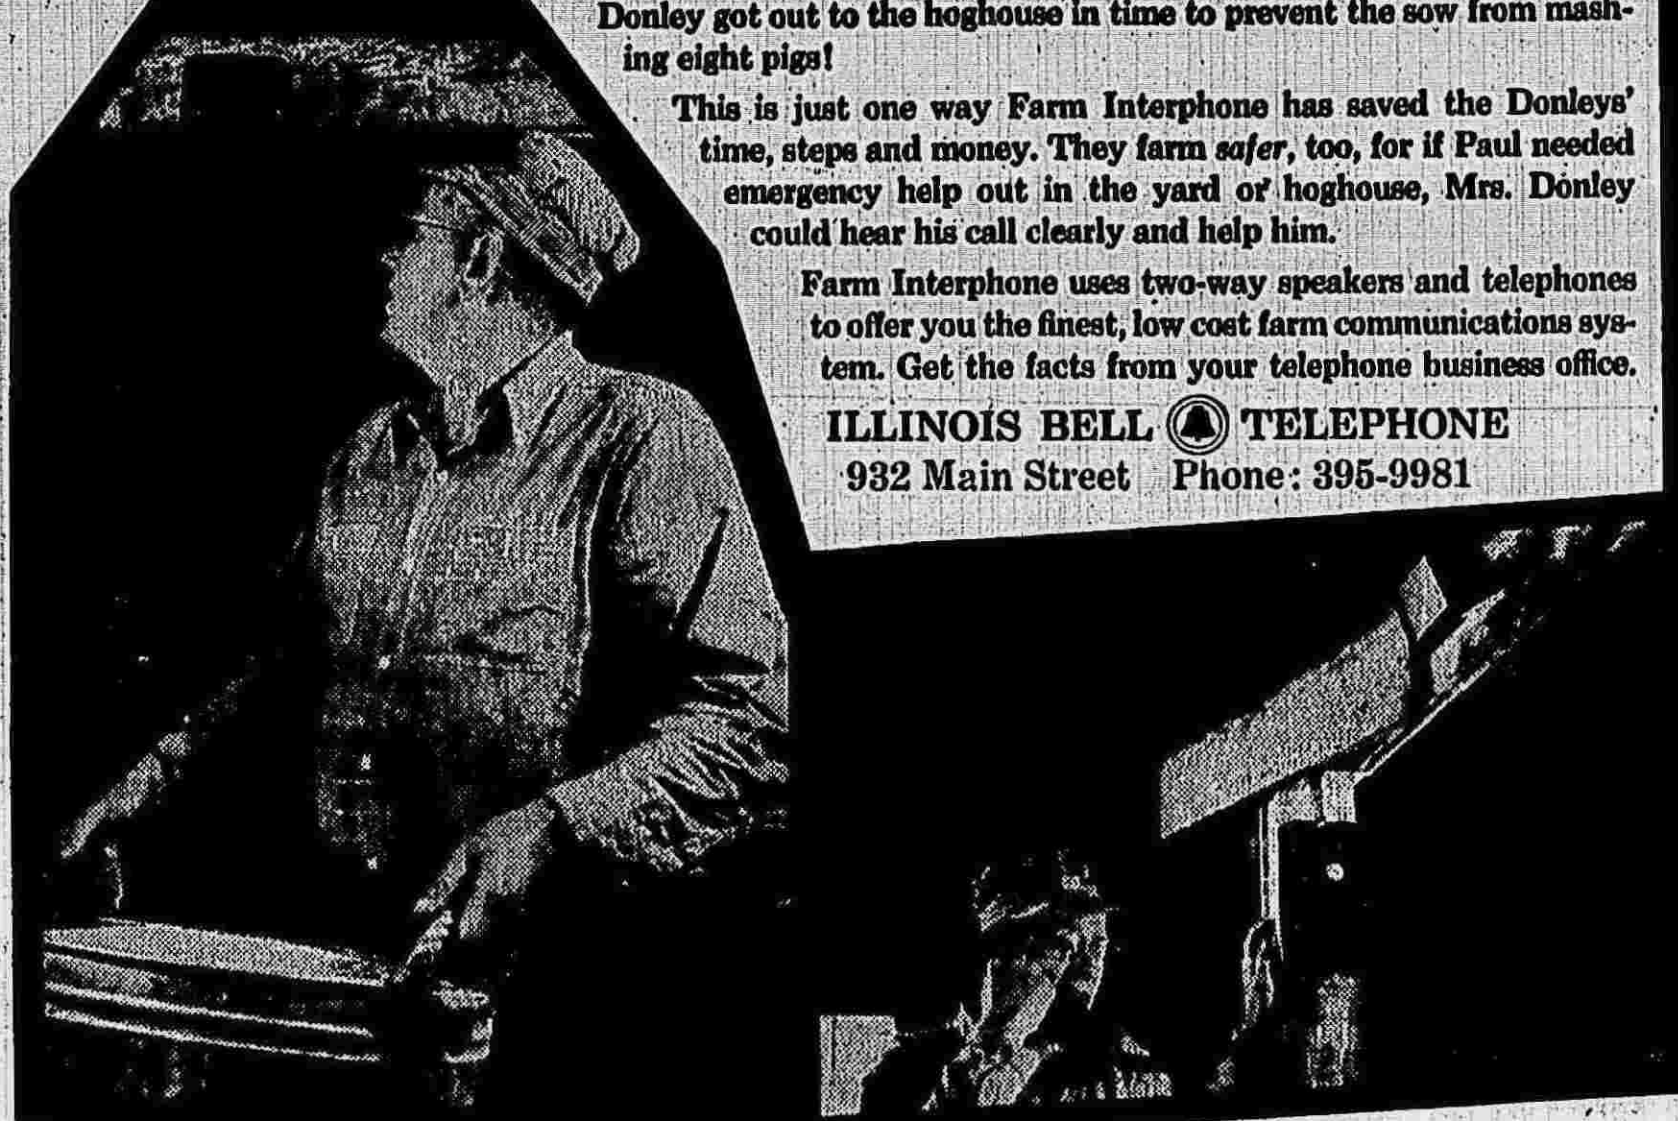

"I could tell by the pigs' squeals over the loudspeaker in the hoghouse that something was wrong," said Paul Donley, of DuPage County. There was! Donley got out to the hoghouse in time to prevent the sow from mashing eight pigs!

This is just one way Farm Interphone has saved the Donleys' time, steps and money. They farm safer, too, for if Paul needed emergency help out in the yard or hoghouse, Mrs. Donley could hear his call clearly and help him.

Farm Interphone uses two-way speakers and telephones to offer you the finest, low cost farm communications system. Get the facts from your telephone business office.

ILLINOIS BELL TELEPHONE

932 Main Street Phone: 395-9981

Paul Donley can take a message and answer "hands free" without dropping what he's doing.

Motor Trend Magazine makes it official:

1962 car of the year!

From the very first we knew we had a winner. Happy owners, car enthusiasts raved about the 1962 Buick Special with the history-making Fireball V-6 engine. Now the editors of Motor Trend — one of the country's top car magazines — have made it official. After road-testing and evaluating all U.S. cars, they've named the V-6 Special "Car of the Year!" Here's how they put it:

"Motor Trend's CAR OF THE YEAR AWARD to the 1962 Buick for pure progress in design, originaive engineering excellence, and the power concept for the future expressed in America's only V-6 automobile engine."

Why are the car experts so hot on this exclusive Buick engine? Only a V-6 can combine the extra vigor and smoothness of V-design with the gas savings of a straight six. This 135 H.P. V-6 weighs up to 140 pounds less than other sixes of comparable power. It sips regular gas ever so sparingly.

But why go on? Ask your Buick dealer to let you drive a V-6 Buick Special. There are five beautiful models, including a fabulous new convertible. Drop in soon and see how easy it is to make the "Car of the Year" your very own.

4-H Club

The Lindenhurst 4-H Club, Sr. met at the home of Alice Bechtel last Thursday evening. Marianne Smith gave a talk on "The Hazards of a Bomb Shelter" and Loren Lee Lewis "What is a 4-H Club?" On January 1, Patricia Wallock and Barbara Warchol met to discuss their Twelfth Night Dinner Party. On Saturday, Jan. 6, their Twelfth Night Dinner party was held at the home of Loren Lee Lewis. The girls invited several young men to attend. Due to the snow storm that day, not all were able to get there. The boys who were able to make it had a lot of fun, playing games and having the girls teach them how to dance. Best of all were the refreshments brought by each girl, that included kidney bean salad, potato salad, yellow molds and fruit punch. Mrs. Westberg brought the delicious ham. Three other mothers attended, Mrs. Lorraine Lewis, Mrs. Warchol and Mrs. Wallock.

The January 13 meeting will be held at Patricia Wallock's home, 913 James Drive in Venetian Village. Girls in the area who would like to become 4-H members are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard (Virginia) Van Vorous, 1831 East Maplewood Drive, welcomed their first son and third child Friday, Dec. 29, at the Zion Hospital. Dr. Burke delivered the 10 pound infant. Wesley Paul has been named after both of his grandfathers.

The other children are Nanette 8, and Regina, 6. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Penning of Chicago are the maternal grandparents.

Party

The Lindenhurst Sportsmen's Club and Auxiliary welcomed the New Year at the home of Tom and Lynne Hay, 2300 Briar Lane. A good time was had by all.

Dance

Approximately 65 couples attended the Lindenhurst Men's Club New Year's Eve Dance. Peter Peter Levas came in at the stroke of 12, dressed or should one say, undressed, as little New Year. All in all, everyone had a good time.

Rummage Sale

Don't forget to attend the rummage sale sponsored by the Lindenhurst Sportsmen's Auxiliary Saturday, Jan. 13, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the B. J. Hooper School on Sand Lake and Beck Roads.

A dietary note, from the Pennsylvania Packer: "In 1960, each person in the United States consumed an average of 161 pounds of red meat. He also ate 35 pounds of chicken and turkey, 204 pounds of fruits, 200 pounds of vegetables, 670 pounds of dairy products, 108 pounds of potatoes, and 7.6 pounds of sweet potatoes."

LIBERAL, KANSAS, DAILY TIMES: The plight of the unemployed American, although not a happy one by American standards, is Utopian compared with that of the Russian who is unemployed. Wages paid Russian workers in 1959-60 averaged about four rubles per hour of labor, the equivalent of $20 per month at the rate of exchange at that time, according to latest international labor data. Remembering that all necessities of life are by far cheaper in the United States, even the unemployed person in this country is about as well off as the full-time employed average Russian worker.

The greatest labor-saving device of today is tomorrow.—The Boise Valley Herald, Middleton, Idaho.

Mighty Mites Take Laurels

High bowlers in the junior division this week are as follows: Roy Miller shot high series with games of 253-156-157, for a 565. Following closely were Rick Ripley with 189-156-191-536; Bobby Lenczewski 181-180-159-520; Ernie Westlund, 190-180-143-513; and Bill Oza with 178-187-165-503.

Fred Wittleder, a Bantam bowler, shot a 201 game, for which he will receive an arm patch.

In last week's story, a 181 game credited to Jerry Berke was actually bowled by Don Miller, who is a junior bowler, but under the age of 13, thereby needing only a 175 game for an arm patch. Jerry, who is over the 13 year age bracket, has already received his arm patch for a game over 225, which is needed by that age bracket.

Grayslake Whips Wauconda Five

Wauconda's Bulldogs suffered a heavy defeat at the hands of Grayslake's rambling and fast-breaking squad, Friday, Jan. 5.

Randy Don Hawkins starred for the Rams, leading them to a 72-53 win over a disheartened Wauconda squad. The win places Grayslake in tie position with Warren for second place. The game was the third win in four conference games for Grayslake.

The first two quarters saw a minor action from both teams with Grayslake sneaking ahead by six points, 34-28.

Applying their fast break to a full quarter press, Grayslake quickly pulled away from a junior-size Wauconda team.

Hawkins led the way toward his team's victory by scoring 14 field goals.

Former Barrington player, Pepper Eiters tallied 13 points for Wauconda and Dan Sutherland racked up 14. Assisting them was Mike Freund who registered 12.

Inside Antioch High

By Mike Brooks

A wintry landscape greeted our return to the beginning of the first full week of school since the holidays. Despite the heavy snowfall there were relatively few students absent. Many of us were a bit tired from shoveling snow Saturday and Sunday.

The biggest topic of conversation around Antioch High at the present time is semester exams coming up January 18 and 19. Not to be forgotten are the hideous "creatures" that give us bad dreams every night. These are known as term papers. At this time of the school year I recall the words of Irving J. Bottner, "Success comes from stepping up the stairs—not staring up the steps."

Before the Christmas holidays the Student Council collected a total of $85 from the student body to purchase food baskets for needy families in the Antioch School District. They gave out two baskets at Christmas and plan to give two each month until the money is exhausted.

One of the problems now confronting the Student Council is persuading the students to participate in the Student Talent Show to be given in April. The council acquired permission to hold the show and they are asking for full co-operation from the students.

The council is also planning a Student Government Day for the early spring, which they hope will include the village government also.

A representative from the Lake County Sheriff Department talked to us in special assembly about the county curfew passed by the County Board on December 13.

Friday night the Sequoias battle the Elia-Vernon Bears here. The Frosh-Soph game starts at 7 p.m. and the varsity tilt at 8:30 p.m. Better get there early if you want to get a good seat to watch our Fighting Sequoia "Lucky 14" cagers play.

The school administration has discovered a method of waking the student body up on a lazy Monday morning—Simply sound the fire alarm and the fresh, crisp air revives everybody! Hurrah for winter and snow! Hurrah for icy winds that blow!

NORWALK, CONN., HOUR: "Many a politician lives to wish he had observed the Chinese axiom: 'It is better to keep one's mouth closed and be thought a fool than to open it and remove all doubt.'"

Lindenhurst News

Men's Club News

Lyle Mercer was elected president of the Lindenhurst Men's Club Thursday evening when the group assembled at the Civic Center. Also elected were James Hartwig, vice-president; Charles Schriver, secretary; Fred Zandier, treasurer; Milton Laszansky, sergeant-at-arms. On the executive board are Ray Caldwell, Dominick DiSilvestro and Paul Wright, outgoing president.

Women's Club News

The newly elected officers of the Lindenhurst Women's Club will be installed Thursday night, Jan. 11, when the ladies meet at the Civic Center on Old Elm Road at 8 p.m.

To be installed are Mrs. Paul Ireland, president; Mrs. Harold Sokup, vice-president; Mrs. William Guzzi, secretary; Mrs. Harold Buerster, treasurer. On the executive board will be Mrs. Jack Thompson, Mrs. Clarence Kleffner and Mrs. Ted Flanagan, outgoing president. Installing officer will be Mrs. Floyd Stanley.

All women of the village are invited to attend. Make a New Year's resolution to join and attend the meetings that are held the second Thursday of every month. Refreshments will be served.

Committee Meeting

Raymond Claffy, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Flanagan and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brylewicz met last Wednesday evening to plan for the blue and gold Father and Son dinner that the Cub Scouts will be having February 28.

Mr. Claffy has agreed to lead a Webelos troop. Boys 10½ years old will be in it to receive their tenderfoot training.

Dance

The Lindenhurst Garden Club will sponsor a teen hop Feb. 17. More details later.

Entertains

Mrs. Mildred Gast, Lindenhurst, entertained the folks at the VFW New Year's Eve party by giving out with some real blues singing, accompanied by Bill Pringle's orchestra. Millie used to sing professionally, but now confines her singing to being soloist for the Faith Lutheran Church in Antioch.

She even had the mayor of Lake Villa take notice of her.

Millie was tremendously sorry that she couldn't attend the Linden-hurst party, but she had made other commitments.

Night-Owls

Canasta was forgotten when the "Night-Owls" got together Dec. 29 at Mrs. Pat Verba's home on Hazelwood Drive. Winners of game prizes were: Pat Schartz, who received a calendar towel by pulling long pretzel stick. (Her team was the winner when they played charades.) Ellen Harsh received a nut cracker set because she had a Christmas seal on the bottom of her cup; and Mel Uebels won a salt and pepper mill when she was able to draw the best picture on an etching board.

Gifts were exchanged and each one found out who her secret pal was for the past year. Having such a good time, they forgot to draw names for this year's secret pal.

Delicious home baked refreshments were enjoyed.

New Baby

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund Kempki on the birth of their first son and second child. Mark Sigmund arrived at Resurrection Hospital, Dec. 30, at 8:57 a.m. The little fellow weighed 8 pounds 7 ounces.

The Kempkis' daughter, Nancy, is 13. The proud maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Saffranski, of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Val Kempki, also of Chicago are the paternal grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. William Kempki of 305 Beck Road, are uncle and aunt.

Channel Lake News

By Mrs. Pearl Kapell

Sunday, January 14, is the big day for ice-fishermen when the Northern Illinois Conservation Club will sponsor their ice-fishing contest. The contest will be held on the south end of Channel Lake, and will run from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Snow plows will clear portions of the ice for the event and ample parking places have been provided for. There will be hourly contests throughout the day for the largest fish, and contests for the largest fish.

Club will meet Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. at the Civic Center.

Rifle Club

Members of the Rifle Club will not meet this week Wednesday.

P.T.A. Meeting

The combined P.T.A. of the Lake Villa Consolidated School and the B. J. Hooper school will meet Monday, Jan. 15, at the Lake Villa school.

Dr. Calvin Midgley of Lake Villa will speak on his trip around the world, taken by him and his wife. There will be a hobby display by students and parents.

Hostesses will be fifth grade mothers.

May 20 is the date set for the annual smorgasbord. Mark it on your calendar.

In each category, the oddest fish and of course, the smallest.

The rapidly-growing Northern Illinois Conservation Club, as its name indicates, does not confine its membership or activities to the immediate area. Many of its members are from Cook and McHenry Counties, and practically all areas of Lake County are represented on the membership list. A majority of the members are active in affairs of the club, and show an enthusiastic interest in its aims and activities.

The club hopes to include in its program for the coming year: more work with youth groups, encouraging them to participate in the conservation program; tree and shrub planting in state parks and public areas; rough fish control; further work on the abatement of water pollution, and the protection and development of fishing areas.

Though not opposed to equitable use of the waters of the area by operators of power boats, the club is opposed to irresponsible and unregulated use of such boats, without regard to the rights of other persons attempting to use lakes and streams for other recreational purposes.

Little Nancy Willett broke her arm in a fall on the ice last week, and spent a couple of days in Zion Hospital as a result.

Freddie Wittleder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wittleder, Sr., are justifiably proud of him. He scattered the pins in the Bantam League Christmas Bowling Tournament for a total of $70 for two games, the winning score. Freddie, who carries a 127 average, came back in League play the next day with a 201 game, which is good bowling in any league.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hennig spent the holidays in Chicago with their daughters—Thanksgiving at the Dan Hazeltines', Christmas at the Jim Moschella's. Mr. Hennig suffered a heart attack during the Thanksgiving festivities, but is fine again.

The Couples Club was entertained by Mrs. Harry Weiss on New Year's day with a delightful turkey dinner. The Happy Nine Club met at the home of Mrs. William Frey on December 20.

GIRL SCOUTS
By Mrs. Raymond Claffy
EL 6-5006

On December 28, approximately 35 Scouts and leaders from Senior Troop 261 and Intermediate Troop 213, both of Antioch, took a Field Trip to Chicago to visit the Museum of Science and Industry. They started at 9 a.m. and left Chicago for the return trip at 2:45 p.m. They took their own nosebag lunch. The main purpose for this trip was to view the Trees (about 15 in all) from different countries decorated in their own traditional Christmas style. They liked the Lithuanian the best of all. They then broke up in groups and viewed the rest of the Museum. In spite of the very cold weather all had a good time.

The leaders and Girl Scouts who were at Camp Robin Hood this past summer held a reunion for renewing Camp Friendship at Camp Morrison on Dec. 28, from 1 to 5 p.m. They went on a hike and were shown movies and enjoyed refreshments. This reunion included the entire Lakeview Council and those attending from this area were Mrs. Grace Amendola, Georgia Goetz, Mrs. Charlotte Queen and daughter, Nancy.

An agricultural economist at the University of Illinois reports that high production means more money for the dairyman. A summary of the 1960-61 DHIA herds shows that boosting milk production from 7,000 to 9,000 pounds per cow lowered the cost two cents per gallon. An increase from 7,000 to 12,000 pounds lowered the cost eight cents per gallon.

ALL ABOUT BABIES

A Public Service of the National Baby Care Council

LOSING INTEREST IN MILK

By Phillips L. Boyd
Institute of Food Technology

Mothers who have put their babies on solid-food diets for the first time may face a common problem: Baby is so fascinated with this new world of eating that he ignores milk. And just a short time ago, it seemed the child would never accept anything but milk. The answer is simple, say pediatricians. Baby can get his full ration of milk by eating solid foods prepared with milk, such as the popular rennet-custards.

Many pediatricians recommend rennet-custards for just this reason, according to a recent survey. The physicians questioned said they also found the food to be a general nutrition aid.

Because rennet-custards are made by mother by adding fresh, warm but unboiled milk, they are higher in protein and vitamin content than many prepared custard puddings. The survey also found that many doctors recommend them to the mother when the infant is anywhere from a few weeks to more than 10 months old—or at an average of 8.3 months of age.

Dr. Henry K. Silver, Professor of Pediatrics at the University of Colorado School of Medicine recommends they should be added to the diet by the time baby is seven months old. He points out that babies "like the pleasant bland flavor of these desserts" and that "they are a useful way of getting the baby to take milk, especially when he loses his desire to drink milk in the ordinary way."

Another feature of this easy-to-prepare food, will be discovered by mother when baby is teething. Baby will find the rennet-custards cool, refreshing and easy to handle in a mouth that is sensitive and often sore.

The baby will appreciate the variety of flavors available: vanilla, chocolate, lemon, orange, raspberry, maple, strawberry and banana. He probably will be tempted too by the pleasant drink that can be made just by stirring a tablespoon into a glass of milk.

Antioch Topples Grant's Bulldogs, 59 - 45

Krieger, Kubicki Lead Team's Win

After losing four out of five of their last five ball games the Antioch Sequoits got back on the winning trail Friday night by soundly whipping Grant High School 59 to 45.

Hitting an even 500 pace at 2 and 3 for conference play, the Sequoits will come back to their home court Friday and try to make it 3 wins in a game against Ela-Vernon.

The contest at Fox Lake started out to be a real see-saw battle with the lead changing hands five times in the first quarter. The period ended with Antioch on the short end of a 11 to 10 tally.

The second period started out as a repetition of the first with Grant leading 21 to 20 with 3 minutes left in the half. Bill Ozga, Sequoit forward, then pumped in 6 straight points on 2 field goals and 2 free throws to put Antioch out in front to stay. Intermission came with Antioch resting on a 28-23 lead.

Both teams came out even in the third quarter, each hitting for 12 points. The Bulldogs then put on their best effort of the contest, drawing to within 4 points of the Sequoits with approximately 4 minutes left in the game.

Antioch came back strong with 10 straight points to quench the flame and take their second conference win 59 to 45.

Antioch controlled the boards throughout the game, grabbing off 44 rebounds to the Bulldogs' 21. This was the first game that the grant quintet has come out second best in rebounding. Bob Kreiger led the way with 17 followed by Doug Lang with 10 and Bill Ozga with 8.

The scoring for the Sequoits was pretty well balanced with Kreiger and Kubicki sharing honors at 17 points each. Ozga came up in double figures with 10 points followed by Lang with 9.

Patterson led the Bulldogs with 15 points on 7 from the field and 1 free throw, followed by Savage with 14.

The Antioch five had one of their best games from the field, hitting on 24 of 55 attempts for a 43.7 mark. Grant took 65 shots and made 21 for a 32.3 percentage.

Waterford Hit By Salem Five

Salem High School, employing a man to man press defense throughout the first half, rolled over a confused Waterford team 75 to 34, Tuesday night in a game played at Salem.

Sharp ball hawking and almost absolute control of the boards held the Waterford squad to a meager 8 points while the Falcons pumped in 26 before the quarter ended.

Leading 36 to 14 at intermission, the Falcons relaxed their defense but continued to dominate the play and rolled up a 56 to 21 lead by end of the third stanza.

The Waterford quintet had their best time of it in the last quarter, scoring 13 points but ended up on the bottom end of a lopsided 75 to 34 tally.

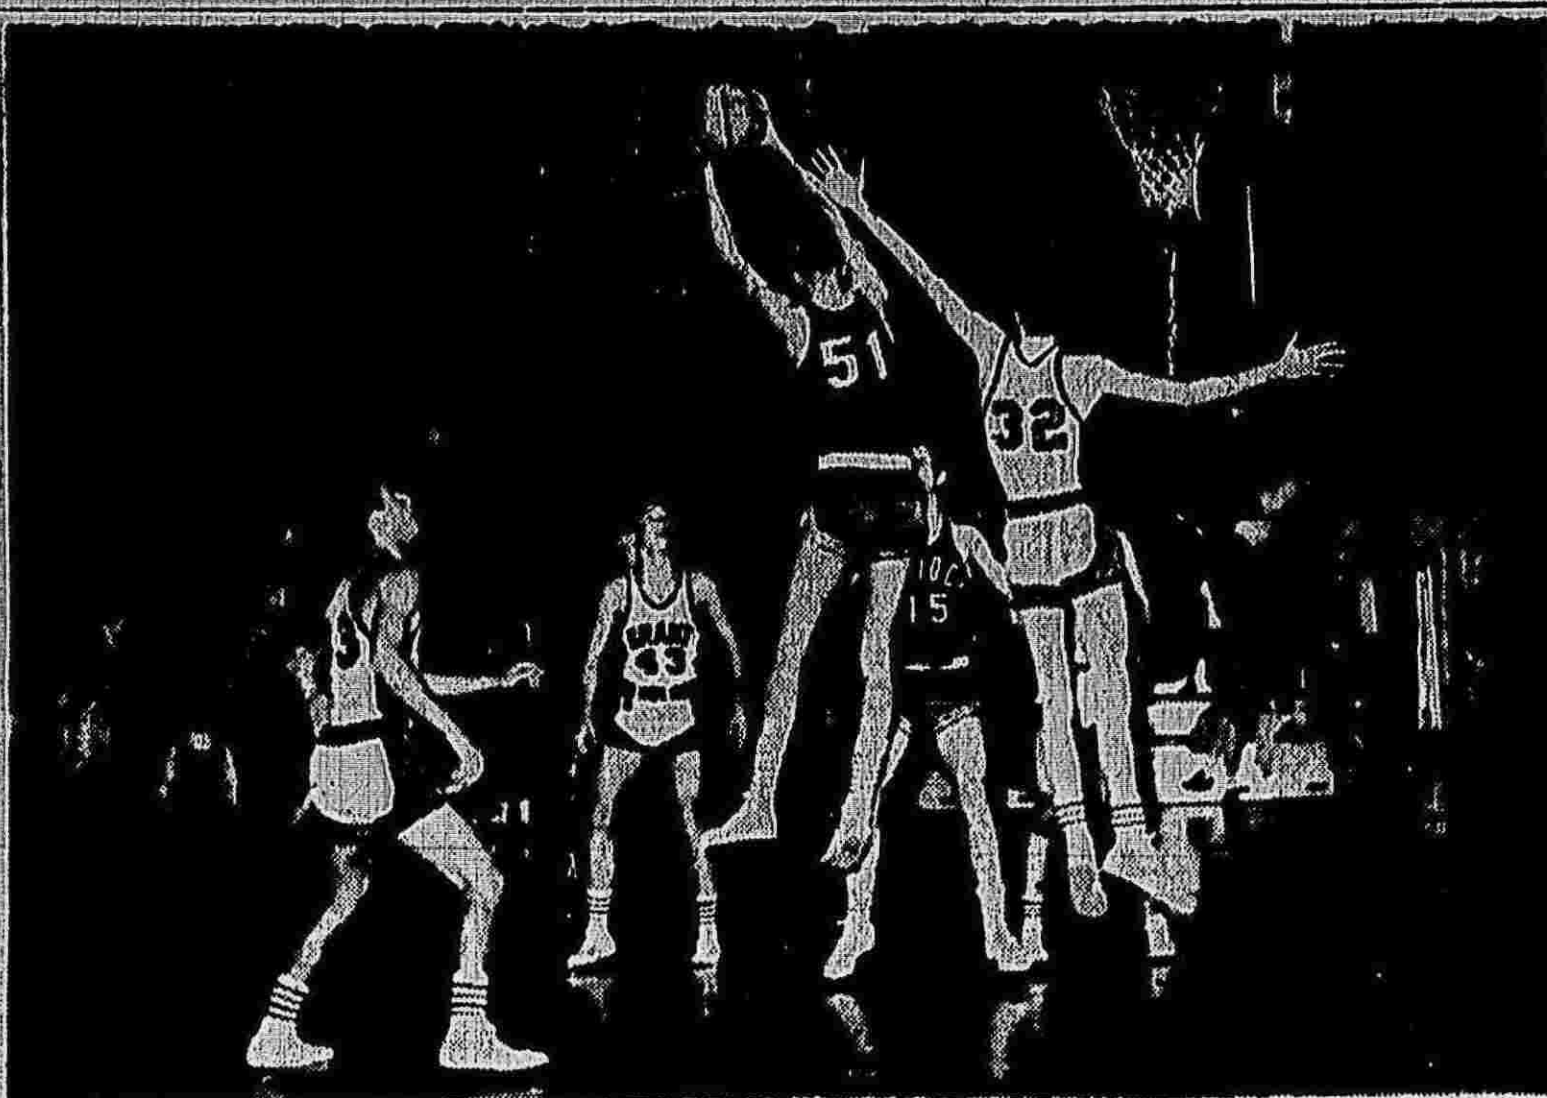

Yates led the scoring for Salem with 28 points on 13 from the field and 2 free throws. Zeihen followed with 18 counters. Benevides took honors for Waterford with 11 points.

The Salem B squad won the opening game of the evening 47 to 28.

Friday's action will see the Falcons moving to Burlington for a game against St. Mary's. Clinton goes to Norris while Palmyra plays Waterford at Waterford. Williams Bay rounds out the conference action in a game scheduled at Union Grove.

Lake Forest Wins Over Ela-Vernon

Steve Ekdahl, Lake Forest eager, led the Scouts to a walloping win over Ela-Vernon 71-45, last Friday night, Jan. 5.

The win put Lake Forest in a tie position with Antioch for fourth place, giving them 2 wins and 2 losses in the conference.

The opening eight minutes of the game saw Ekdahl and company pump in 24 points to the Ela's efforts of 12. Although he had to sit out several periods of time due to excessive fouls, Ekdahl never-the-less finished the game by leading the whole crew with 21 points.

A half-time score finished with Lake Forest leading by a margin of 16 points, 40-24.

An inconsequential third quarter was followed by a fourth quarter in which the Scouts scored 17 points to only 8 by Ela.

Dennis Elliott with 13 points, Tom Krueger with 12 and Matt Martorano with 10 were the Bear scorers attempting to stem the tide of the game.

Lake Forest's frosh-soph team also took the Bear underclassmen, 43 to 39.

Antioch Statistics Show 500 Percent Game Average

By Howard Shepard

As the first round of play in the Northwest Suburban Conference approaches its finish, the Antioch Sequoits are proving themselves a team to be reckoned with. It's an entirely different ball club from the one that took the floor last November 22nd against Mundelein.

Edging a brand new Mundelein squad 42-41, the Sequoits came home and took the measure of Wauconda 61-44 in their conference opener. Still at home, the Sequoits shocked the conference and Grayslake by finally losing a thriller in the last seconds 84-81.

In another heartbreaker, the locals were edged by a rangy Lake Forest squad 60-59 in their next outing. Taking a break from conference play, the Sequoits traveled down to Bensenville, Ill., and played well enough to take fourth place in the Fenton Holiday Tournament.

The Antioch team made it an even 500 Friday night for total games by soundly whipping Grant High School 59-45 in a conference game played at Fox Lake.

In releasing statistics for the first seven games, Coach Larry Leon said: "We're a much improved team and the fans can look forward to a better showing in the second round."

As a team, the Sequoits are hitting a respectable 44% of their field goal attempts to their opponents' 37.6%. The only trouble is the opponents have taken 450 shots to Antioch's 382. This figures out to about ten more field goal attempts per game, by Antioch foes.

On free throws, Antioch is hitting at .63 percentage clip to .631 for the opposition. Total points on the statistical ledger reads, 440 at 62.9% for Antioch, 432 at 61.7% for the adversaries.

Although not considered a big team, the Sequoits have done well off the boards, coming off with 214 rebounds to their foes' 217.

One of the Sequoits' big problems all season has been their lack of experience. The local five have averaged 13 turnovers per game, i.e., turning the ball over to the opposing team without taking a shot.

Mistakes such as traveling with the ball, too long in the three-second zone, bad passes, etc., have hampered the team's offense through most of their games.

"We are improving with every game," said Leon, and by season's end the statistics should tell a different story.

Another shortage that has plagued the Sequoits is the number of shots attempted per game. "This ball club should take at least 60 to 65 shots per game," Leon said. Their average is about ten attempts below this point now.

In the individual statistic bracket, Bob Kubicki leads the way with 41 field goals out of 79 attempts, and 13 free throws for 95 points. This gives him a 13.6 points per game average, the only team member in double figures. Doug Lang follows with 59 points and an 8.4 point average.

Hallwas, although not yet played as regularly as some of the other boys, leads with rebounds, gathering in 47. Doug Lang came up with 45, followed by Ozga with 37.

Salem Defeats Norris by 78-20

Salem High School, on their way towards the Southwest Conference title, boosted their stock another few points Friday night by rolling over Norris, 78 to 20.

Jumping out to a 20 to 5 lead at the first quarter mark, the Falcons had it easy all the way. In a contest that didn't resemble much of a basketball game, the Falcons held Norris to 3 points in the second quarter and led at the half 37 to 8.

Norris had their best time of it in the third quarter, scoring 11 points while Salem was racking up 22. In the final stanza a freethrow marked the only score for the Norris crew while the Falcons continued pouring them in, ending the quarter with 19.

Yates, in one of his best performances of the season, hit for 32 points on 15 field goals and 2 charity tosses. Zeihen followed with 11 counters. Reichert took scoring honors for the luckless Norris squad with 10 points.

Blue Devils Beaten 68 - 60, Round Lake in First Place

Games Postponed Due to Snowfall

Games postponed last Saturday due to the excessive amount of snowfall making adequate transportation impossible were the Grayslake-Ela-Vernon (conference game) and the Wauconda-Cary-Grove, contests.

So far, none of these games have been reported to have been rescheduled.

Mustangs Squash Lake Forest Team

Mundelein's Mustangs, after previous poor performances, licked the Lake Forest squad 61-40 last Saturday, Jan. 6, in a non-conference tilt. The first period of the game saw Lee Weston lead Mundelein to 12-9 advantage over the Scouts.

The halftime score was 20-19 with Mundelein grasping at a slim lead. Greg Merriam, Mustang cager, pushed forward in the third quarter which saw Lake Forest drop 4 points behind in the 36-31 score.

Steve Ekdahl, outstanding Scout

Round Lake Panthers took sole possession of first place in the Northwest Suburban basketball league, after their win over Warren's Blue Devils last Friday, January 5.

A capacity crowd watched Round Lakers take a desperately fighting Warren team, 68 to 60.

The first three periods of the game saw both teams edging each other out of the lead until the fourth quarter when Round Lake, sparked by Ed Zepka, took the lead.

Warren sharp shooters, George Harvey, John McClure and Ken Krueger whose valuable talent was sorely needed, fouled out of the game before its completion, giving Round Lake the edge for the win.

Kepka, hard driving Round Lake charger, made 17 points in the game with 10 of them in the last quarter.

Round Lake also took the frosh-soph game 60 to 30, placing themselves in third place in the underclass standings. They have a 3-1 record.

player, pumped in 26 points to lead all scorers. Twelve of the Ekdahl points were made from free throws. Weston and Merriam with 17 and 14 points respectively, topped the Scouts in the 4th quarter and cinched the game for Mundelein.
